

Cross-country coaches take bow

Several coaches were honored for their longevity last Saturday during the awards ceremony after the 25th running of the Spartan Classic in St. Joseph.

Mahomet-Seymour's John King, Paxton-Buckley-Loda's Fred Guyot, Hoopeston Area's Quentin Ryder and Georgetown-Ridge Farm's Tom Kulbartz had teams compete in all 25 of the runs through the streets of St. Joseph.

Former champions Art (Freeman) Georges of SJ-O (1979), Kirt Davis of Hoopeston-East Lynn (1981 and 1982), Neal Mathis of Mahomet (1984) and Barry Pearman of G-RF (1990 and 1992) were on hand to help hand out awards.
