■ M-S takes Tuscola crowns.

Mahomet-Seymour took both the boys' and girls' titles at the Tuscola Classic Street Race.

Five Bulldogs finished in the top 10 in the boys' race as M-S scored 40 points to beat second-place Uni by 48. Phil Alexander was the quickest M-S runner, finishing fourth in 16:20.

Tuscola's Robert Hanners won the race in 15:50. Prairie Central's Ryan Young was second, and Sullivan's Luke Standereer finished third. Andrew Medendorp was Uni's top placer with a seventh-place finish.

In the girls' race, Sarah Bobsin finished second as M-S edged host Tuscola for the title. Sara McElmurry (fifth) and Shannon Dietrich (10th) joined Bobsin in the top 10 as the Bulldogs scored 45 points. Tuscola had 68.

Tuscola had two runners in the top 10: Stephanie Reinhart was fourth, and Becky Wetzel was seventh.
