

Audubon, American History, Natural History — plus reading education and science education for children publications. Margie Lerch, Thomasboro.

Call Lerch at 643-2273.

I have Readers Digest condensed books to give away, dating from 1964 to 1991. Katy Frothingham, Tolono.

Call Frothingham at 485-4155.

I have several dozen back issues of Gourmet Magazine — mostly from the 1980s — if anyone would like them. Janice Rothbaum, Urbana.

Call 328-1850.

I am downsizing my apartment and planning another move. I have a set of (audio) things that are free: 8-track tape player and AM-FM radio and record turntable; 98 assorted tapes in three revolving wooden holders; and two Memorex speakers. Pamela Bernardi, Atwood.

Call Bernardi at 578-2266.

Readers, help!

Q: I am looking for a copy of "Danville: A Pictorial History" by Robert Wright. A relative sent me a beautiful book on his city in Germany and I want to reciprocate. Someone found a copy in Canada, but it would have been $60 to get it. I understand the book is supposed to be reprinted in December, but I can't wait that long. ValentineSpiralke, Danville.

Call Spiralke at 446-5111 if you have a copy to sell.

Q: I am a boys' cross-country coach at Mahomet-Seymour High School. Our cross-country course and training area is away from our school grounds and water isn't readily available. Our boys were hoping some kind soul would donate a golf cart so our manager would be able to bring coolers of water and a medicine kit to our practice area. Neal Garrison, St. Joseph.

Call Garrison at work at 586-4962 or home at 469-0005.

Q: Are there any companies in the area that take articles on consignment to sell on eBay?

Also, I need someone to clean up my back yard on a weekly basis. I have a chocolate Lab dog. Betsy Joyce Perkins, Champaign.

Call Perkins at 352-4285.

Lynda Zimmer is a News-Gazette staff writer. Her Bulletin Board column appears Saturdays. Along with your first and last name, city and telephone number, mail your questions or answers to: Bulletin Board, The News-Gazette, P.O. Box 677, Champaign, IL 61824-0677; call 351-5224; or send e-mail to zimmer@news-gazette.com. If you need information previously published, please send a stamped, self-addressed envelope.