MAHOMET-SEYMOUR BOYS CROSS COUNTRY

The History of Mahomet-Seymour Boys Cross Country

Mahomet-Seymour High School officially started the cross country program in the 1970-71 season.

Coach Merv Correll was the head coach for the team for two years before handing off the head coaching duties to Coach John King.

Coach John King was head coach from the 1973-74 season through the 2000-01 season. Coach King started the girls cross country program at our school during the 1981-82 season. John King was head coach of both programs until he retired after the 2000-01 season.

Coach Bonnie Moxley was head coach of both the boys and girls cross country team for one year in 2001-02 until the program was split into two separate programs with two separate head coaches.

Coach Neal Garrison has been head boys coach from the 2002-03 season through the current season.

Our program has been in existence for 51 years. In 2010, the Boys Cross Country team created the Boys Cross Country Hall of Fame in order to honor the coaches and runners that gave so much to our program.

In order to make it selective, we plan to only induct about 2 runners a year into the Hall of Fame after the initial induction ceremony.

Mahomet-Seymour was in the Sangamon Valley Conference to the 1975-76 season.

Mahomet-Seymour was in the Okaw Valley Conference from the 1976-77 season to the 1984-85 season.

Mahomet-Seymour was not in a conference during the 1985-86 season.

Mahomet-Seymour has been in the Cornbelt Conference from the 1986-87 season to the 2016-17 season.

Mahomet-Seymour has been in the Apollo Conference from the 2017-18 season to present.

Mahomet-Seymour has had 99 All-Conference runners.

Mahomet-Seymour has had 61 All-Regional runners.

Mahomet-Seymour has had 34 All-Sectional runners.

Mahomet-Seymour has had 27 All-State runners.

Mahomet-Seymour has won 11 Conference team championships.

Mahomet-Seymour has won 16 Regional team championships.

Mahomet-Seymour has won 7 Sectional team championships.

Mahomet-Seymour has won 2 State championships.

I want to sincerely thank all of the alumni and former coaches that have set such a high standard for our current runners to try to improve upon.

Sincerely,

Neal Garrison

Coach John King

Coach John King was a 2010 Mahomet-Seymour High School Boys Cross Country Hall of Fame Inductee.

Coach John King coached cross country at Mahomet-Seymour for 29 years. He also coached boys track and field during the majority of this time. He also was the junior high cross country coach for some of these years.

John began his coaching career using his running knowledge and passion for running to lead Mahomet-Seymour to be the best team in the area for decades. Coach King was the 2nd coach of 4 total head coaches for the history of Mahomet-Seymour cross country. His first year as head coach of the cross country team was the 1972 season. Coach King's final year was the 2000 cross country season.

Coach King coached the fastest runner in our school's history from 1970-2014 (Mark Johnson 14:41), the highest single A team place at State (4th in 1995 and 4th in 1996), a sectional championship team (1979), and eight regional championship teams (1976, 1978, 1979, 1987, 1988, 1989, 1995, and 1996).

Coach King was ahead of his time and had the first female runner on an all boys squad in 1974 (Jenny Johnson) and he created the first girls team in 1981. Coach King can be credited with be the foundation of the Mahomet-Seymour Cross Country program.

Coach King was also a strong cross country runner himself. He was a 2 time Vigo County champ, a 2 time Western Indiana Con. champ, and one various other invitational championships. He ran for Indiana State University where he broke the school record 3 times.

Coach Merv Correll was a 2010 Mahomet-Seymour High School Boys Cross Country Hall of Fame Inductee.

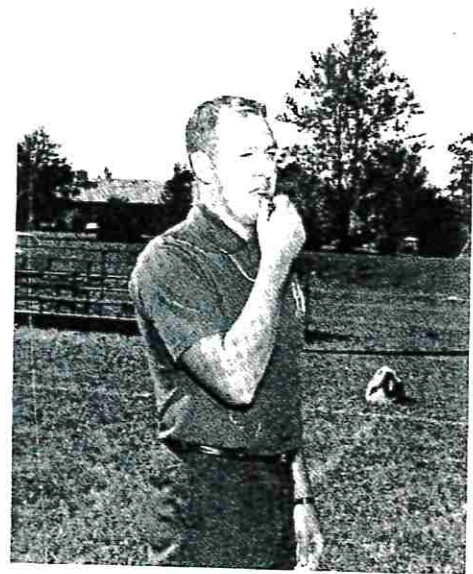

Coach Merv Correll coached cross country at Mahomet-Seymour for 2 years during the 1971 and 1972 seasons.

Merv was a standout basketball player in high school. He can still be found on some all-tournament team records for his accomplishments. Merv was a physical education teacher and driver education instructor at Mahomet-Seymour high school.

Merv also coached boys basketball during most of his teaching career. He was asked by the administration if he would be willing to coach cross country due to his coaching abilities.

Merv can be credited for being the first cross country coach for our program.

Jenny Johnson

Jenny was a 2010 Mahomet-Seymour High School Boys Cross Country Hall of Fame Inductee.

Jenny Johnson (now Jennifer Krueger) was the first female runner on an all boys squad in 1974. Just a few years earlier in 1967, Kathryn Switzer was tackled by the well respected Boston Marathon race director in an attempt to preserve the sanctity of the most prestigious marathon in the world by not allowing a female to run in it. In 1973, Title IX had just been passed to give females an equal opportunity in sports. However, in reality, girls sports still weren't treated equally.

Mahomet-Seymour and Jenny Johnson were ahead of the times. Jenny ran in 1974 and Mahomet-Seymour had their first all-girl's team in 1981. The Olympics wouldn't even let females run the marathon until 1984 and even then with much controversy. It would be hard to imagine the pressure of being the first female to join an all male sport's team.

Jenny demonstrated a tremendous amount of personal strength to break the barriers and to open up the doors for females in the sport. Jenny was quite a successful runner going on to qualify for state in track in the 1600 and 3200.

Jenny also helped break the barriers at the college level as she was on the first women's cross country team at Cleveland State University in 1980.

Evan Monson ran 4 years of cross country during the 2003-2006 seasons. Evan showed a great amount of commitment and determination to himself and the team. His first race of his freshman year was 34:16. His slowest time his first season was a 36:47. He ran in the 30 minute range for 10 of his 11 races his freshman year. He improved 10 minutes and 57 seconds from his first 3 mile race as a freshman to his senior personal best. During the summer before his sophomore year, Evan ran constantly and it showed. Evan cut off around 7 minutes from the start of his freshman year to his sophomore year. Evan earned our most improved fresh/soph runner of the year his sophomore year. As a junior, Evan continued to improve. He often ran races in the off-season to improve. Evan medaled at the Olympia Invitational in the open race by placing 23rd. Evan ran a personal best of 23:52 during his junior year. He improved 1 minute and 37 seconds from his sophomore year. As a senior, Evan started the season the strongest physically and mentally ever. He has improved more over a 4 year span than I have ever seen an athlete improve. He sets our team standard for the future runners to see who can improve the most over 4 years. By mid-season, Evan was running life time best times. Evan improved another 39 seconds between his junior and senior year. Evan ran a lifetime personal best at the Peoria Notre Dame Invitational with a time of 23:19. He worked his way onto the News-Gazette Prep Cross Country Leader list in October of his senior year.

This page gives credit to those runners that improved the most over their career. We used their first 3 mile race as a starting point and their fastest 3 mile time in their remaining years as the best career time. We only used 3 mile courses for this chart. This list includes records since 2000.

Thomas Thoren

Someone has to set the standard and be the first to go past the old limits. Thomas set our standard for the first streak of 93 days.

Thomas ran 4 years of cross country during the 2004-2007 seasons.

He showed great determination during his freshman year and improved his time drastically throughout the year. He was the only runner his freshman year to earn the prized award of excellent effort award. He earned this through showing above and beyond the call of duty determination in practice. It was just a glimpse of what determination he had as a person and athlete. As a sophomore, Thomas carried his same great attitude and work ethic with him. He often took on the hardest workout and improved as a result.

As a junior Thomas ran continually all winter, spring and summer. Thomas ran at least 1 mile a day for 93 days. Thomas ran through the worst winter weather to accomplish this streak. Thomas drastically improved as a result of his hard work. He was a great example to the team of how hard work pays off. He improved 1 minute and 11 seconds from his sophomore year. As a senior, Thomas led his team again in off-season training. He ran one streak of 63 days in a row and another that started the season with over 280 days in a row. Thomas was one of the pace setters on the team as far as raising the bar for his teammates and for our future runners. Thomas also ran over 400 miles in the summer before his senior year and earned the title of captain of his team. He ran a lifetime personal best at conference with a time of 20:53. Thomas' first 3 mile time his freshman year was a 27:20. Most of his races were 26 and 27 minutes. He improved 6 minutes and 27 seconds from his first race to his last race. I credit this to his disciplined training.

This is a list of the runners who ran as many days they could run in a row. We set a minimum limit of 1 mile. However, most days our runners ran much more than the minimum. This award is quite an honor as it shows a great deal of commitment and dedication to oneself and the team. Illinois weather is one of the toughest on a runner. The horrible winter wind chills, the spring downpours of rain, the excessive humidity and summer heat all make this award more meaningful. We started this award in October of 2005.

Thomas' 93 Consecutive Day Reign consisted of:

The team standard has to be set for the current and future runners. Thomas was the first to take on the challenge setting the standard at 93. Thomas ran through below zero wind-chill. Thomas ran on days when school was canceled due to the extreme weather conditions. Thomas ran on days when school was let out early after getting 4 inches of snow in a couple hours. Thomas ran as late as 10 pm after visiting the doctor. He ran on the weekends when no one else was around. He ran on Christmas, New Years, and other days that very few people were willing to run on.

Jacob Mahaffey and Thomas Thoren's 138 & 280 Streak consisted of:

Running through 20 below wind-chill. Jacob and Thomas ran on 3 days when school was canceled due to the extreme weather conditions. They ran on days when school was let out early after getting 12 inches of snow in a couple of hours. Jacob ran as late as 11:50 pm. Both ran on holidays such as Christmas and New Years. Their dedication and commitment set a high standard for their current and future teammates.
